Thanks for the info! I think there is some interest around here for some 7's. We got an officer meeting and end of season team meeting coming up so we'll be able to get a better idea of interest.

Are you guys planning on going to the tournaments in KC on June 14th and the one in Wichita on June 21st? I might not be back in time for the KC tournament (but maybe I will), but I should be back for the one on the 21st.

(21st) and can you even run sevens? :P I think we should be able to pull a side together... not sure when the deadline is to turn a team roster/money's in. I think it is coming up soon! (Could be the 19th o May)We should get all the heads interested together and get the funds up and going. I am down!

So what's the plan? Where's the tournament? How many are going? Are we just going to show up and try to whore in or has some arrangement been made with the Blues?

Me and dirty have made it to every practice with them since 7s started this year. Plus we usually take a few others from topeka with us. So yes we are good with the blues, also wichita is needing some whores so pick your team. And you should call me tomorrow after 4. i lost your number otherwise i would call you and tell you all about whats going on. 2314896

Hey man next time you call leave a number to reach you at. I missed it but didnt receive the number for missed call. The tourney was in wichita, and yes plenty of whores where needed. I tried to contact others for your number but no one had it but jarod who withheld it because he didn't think you where in town. so sorry you missed out man, there is one in dallas in a couple of weeks.

No problem. I didn't really have enough time to go to Wichita and back anyway. I figured you had caller ID, but here's a tip for any of you guys that might need to get my phone number: it's in the phone book. For you youngsters, that's what we used in the days before computers to look up phone numbers (now you can just look it up online). Or call information (1411). I'm the only Ailsieger in Topeka.

And what's up with Jared not giving up the number? It's not like it's classified info or anything.

And just in case anyone is confused, I'm back in Iraq again. I won't be back to Topeka until the end of the year, so I'll see you all again in the Spring '09 season.

I didn't want to give away my special whore numbers. Actually, when I got his voicemail I didn't have your number at the time so I called and left him a voicemail saying I didn't have it atm but that he didn't need it anyways because I thought you were out of town. I then mentioned that if he still needed it I would look it up once I got home. :P
