
Game this Saturday 10/31

Posted by Ailslieger - 2009/10/27 20:55

Our match in Salina this Saturday is confirmed. We need to get everybody we can out there. We won last week and we can definitely win this week.

Salina may be short a guy or two and there'll be no CIPP checks, so everybody that wants to play should come out, because you WILL get to play.

They want to move the game time up to 1:00 pm. Unless I hear that that's going to be a major problem, I'll tell them that's o.k.

I will get directions and post them later.

I would appreciate it if everybody that plans on going would respond to this thread so we can get a head count. We have only 2 games to go and we need to finish the season strong!
